

Petit Ermitage

Inspired by the Mediterranean lifestyle and fashioned after a private pied-a-terre, Petit Ermitage offer guests an intimate sanctuary in which to take refuge from the bustling city of Los Angeles.

Nestled on a quiet street in West Hollywood, the boutique, 80 suite Hotel is located just steps from the infamous Sunset Strip and a short distance from the most desirable areas in the city of angels.

Eclectic European antiques grace each elegant space in the Hotel. Hallways and suites feature an extensive private art collection, including original works by Miro, DeKooning, Erte, Rauschenberg and Dali.

Understated decadence and artistic whimsy define the property and are visible in details from the custom crafted mattresses and 618 thread count sheets to the toy elephants placed in each suite. In suite fireplaces with handcrafted mantels are complemented by handwoven Turkish carpets.

The property boasts one of the most magical outdoor spaces in the city. The Private Rooftop Club - replete with native gardens, a salt water pool, cabanas, an outdoor sunken fireplace and 360 degree views of the Hollywood Hills - is considered one of the premiere private spaces in Los Angeles.

Petit Ermitage encourages its eclectic mix of visiting artists, unconventional business travelers and enlightened thinkers to unwind in a state of tranquility and enter the laissez-faire lifestyle of the modern day bohemian.
